

Dear Sir,

STATINTL

Thank you very much indeed for your letter of the 8th May giving additional information on the printout requirements for the Dataphone system.

This will be passed immediately forward to the engineer concerned and should there be any comments or queries they will be taken up with you at a very early date.

I have noted your comments on the question of the other 3 [] machines and that you consider that the performance has been below acceptable limits. [] has just returned [] after a period of intensive training [] and we feel quite confident that he will be able to give you considerable assistance. A copy of this letter is being passed forward to our [] office and I am asking [] to make arrangements to follow up on this matter. We regret the inconvenience that has been caused by the problems concerned with these equipments, but trust that our latest moves will eradicate any further troubles.
